

FIA Pocket August & September

Announcements from the FIA

Starting from September 2019 we will be able to accept consultation in 10 languages!

At the Fukui International Activities plaza and the Fukui International Association Reinan Center, starting in September, we will be able to accept consultation from foreign residents in 10 languages, using video calling interpretation both via phone and at the counter.

Also, starting in September there will be Vietnamese interpretation available at the Fukui International Activities Plaza on Saturdays and Sundays. We are working to become a one stop center for foreign residents to offer advice and referrals for consultation and everyday life issues. We will post flyers with more information at the end of August.

We can also speak with you in easy Japanese! (Tuesday – Sunday)
